Panel Discussion:

- Globalization presents a new challenge for people from different religions, ethnicities, races and nations - for getting along peacefully with each other.
- Have legislations, treaties and efforts for inclusion, really solved interracial, inter-religious conflicts?
- What is self-Knowing, which is the life time work of the Master Sri J Krishnamurti?
- How can self-Knowing help resolve these seemingly unending conflicts?
- Is the 'divisive nature' of the self the root cause for all these conflicts?
